The meeting will take place both in person and virtually on two separate weekends in order to accommodate both an outstanding number of paper submissions and accessibility options during the pandemic. The majority of papers presented at the in-person meeting will be recorded and available online to registrants. The virtual portion of the meeting will be hosted live, with recordings available as well.
About ARCE

Founded in 1948, the American Research Center in Egypt (ARCE) is a private, nonprofit organization composed of educational and cultural institutions, professional scholars, and private individuals. ARCE’s mission is to support research on all aspects of Egyptian history and culture, foster a broader knowledge about Egypt among the public, and strengthen American-Egyptian cultural ties.

About the ARCE Annual Meeting

Each year, ARCE hosts the preeminent Egyptological conference in the world. During this annual three-day meeting, scholars and expedition leaders present their research and discuss their latest project developments. In 2021 ARCE hosted the Annual Meeting virtually with record attendance, welcoming 750 registrants from 17 countries. In 2022, ARCE will resume our signature in-person meeting in Irvine, California April 22-24, 2022. The ARCE Annual Meeting welcomes over hundreds preeminent Egyptologists, members of Egyptian Ministries, archeologists, and researchers from across the globe.
